SOME THOUGHTS ON THE NEW YEAR

The last words that were found in Sir Walter Scott's dairy were, "Tomorrow, I shall." But there was no tomorrow for him. He died with good intentions to accomplish a particular goal, but he never had the opportunity to either state or accomplish it.

It seems to me that this curious footnote of history is symbolic of all of us. Most of us live with the very best intentions, and with many positive goals; the problem, however, is that we very seldom accomplish any of them. Like that page in Sir Walter's diary, our life is a series of endless pages with plans that are never realized.

Christ knew fully well that it is all too human for us to have lofty ideals but also procrastinate endlessly so that they never become a reality in our lives. That is why the Bible in all its wisdom warns us to be "doers of the word, and not hearers only."(James 1:22)

Plans, goals, and intentions simply don't count; they are not realities, and never will be until we decide to act on them, and to become doers and not only thinkers or hearers. As a new year begins, we are offered a new opportunity to act. Let this be the year that we renew a friendship, visit the lonely, comfort the grieving and be a participant and involved Christian in the worship, the spiritual, the social and the cultural life of our parish. Let this be a new year that does not add to the story of our life another page of unrealized goals, but rather let it be the year in which many of them are accomplished and we are transformed into the doers of God's word.

A HAPPY, HEALTHY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR 2012

ΣΚΕΨΕΙΣ ΕΠΙ ΤΟΥ ΝΕΟΥ ΕΤΟΥΣ

Τα τελευταία λόγια που έγραψε ένας μεγάλος Άγγλος άνδρας της ιστορίας στο ημερολόγιό του ήσαν, « Αύριο θα. . . Δυστυχώς όμως το αύριο για τον άνθρωπο αυτόν ποτέ δεν ήλθε. Απέθανε με αγαθές προθέσεις, αλλά δεν του δόθηκε η ευκαιρία να τις πραγματοποιήσει.

Μου φαίνεται όμως ότι η μικρή αυτή υποσημείωσι της ιστορίας συμβολίζει όλους μας. Ολοι ζούμε με καλές προθέσεις και θετικά σχέδια, το πρόβλημα όμως είναι ότι ελάχιστοι από μας τα φέρνουμε εις πέρας. Σαν την σελίδα του ημερολογίου του μεγάλου αυτού άνδρα, η ζωή μας είναι μόνον ατελείωτες σελίδες γεμάτες με καλές αποφάσεις και προθέσεις που δυστηχώς ποτέ δεν εφαρμόστησαν.

Ο Χριστός ήξερε ότι ανθρώπινον είναι να έχη κανείς υψηλά φρονήματα και καλές διαθέσεις, αλλά να τα αναβάλλη συνεχώς ώστε ποτέ να μην δούν το φώς της πραγματικότητας στην ζωήν μας. Γιαυτό ακριβώς το Ευαγγέλιο μας λέγει «Γίνεσθε δε εργάτες του λόγου και μη μόνον ακροατές.» (Ιακ. 1.22)

Σχέδια, προθέσεις, προφορικές αποφάσεις καμμιά αξία δεν έχουν. Δέν είναι πραγματικότητες και ποτέ δεν θα έλθουν σε αποπεράτωσι εάν πρώτα δεν αποφασίσουμε να τις θέσουμε σε εφαρμογή, και να γίνουμε «εργάτες του λόγου του Θεού και όχι μόνον ακροατές του» Τώρα που αρχίζει ένας καινούργιος χρόνος, δίνεται μιά νέα ευκαιρία γιά να τις αξιοποιήσουμε. Ας είναι ο νέος αυτός χρόνος, ένας χρόνος μέσα στον οποίον δεν θα προσθέσουμε άλλες άδειες σελίδες στήν ιστορία της ζωής μας, αλλά σελίδες γεμάτες με έργα που πηγάζουν μέσα από την πίστιν μας και μας μεταμορφώνουν σε εργάτες του θείου νόμου που μας προοθούν σε μιά ποιό δυναμική κοινωνία με τούς συνανθρώπους μας, με την Εκκλησία του Χριστού και την κοινότητά μας.

ΕΥΧΟΜΕΘΑ ΤΟ ΝΕΟ ΕΤΟΣ 2012 ΑΙΣΙΟΝ ΕΥΤΥΧΕΣ, ΕΥΛΟΓΗΜΕΝΟ.

HOUSE BLESSING FOR THE THEOPHANY SEASON

Fr. George is available for the venerable tradition of the blessing of homes after Holy Theophany. Many of our parishioners have never taken advantage of this tradition, which is offered for the sanctification of your homes and families. Please call Fr. George at church to arrange a mutually convenient time for your house blessing.

SERVICE CANCELLATIONS

As we do each winter, service cancellations on bad weather days will be announced on the church's voicemail system. Simply call the church at 846-0555, and select #4 on the main menu: "additional services for the current week." Make sure to check before departing for church, since the decision to cancel is usually made in the morning, or late afternoon for evening services.

THANK YOU

A huge thank you to the volunteers who help with our mailings every month: Mary Champion, Penny Hiotas, Joanne Hologgitas, Esther Lascaris-Viveiros, George Baker and George Anagnostos. Many thanks to all of you!

PHILOPTOCHOS

The Philoptochos will be hosting the annual Vasilopeta on Sun. Jan 15th immediately following church. We look forward to seeing our St. Spyridon Community there. Happy, Healthy, and Blessed New Year to us all.

SOUP KITCHEN NEWS

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE

“You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drip with abundance.” Psalm 65(64):11

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we all celebrate the New Year 2012 and the endless possibilities that may be ours as a local parish, a Church, a state and a nation, we look first to God as we always do and ask for His blessings. We ask God to watch over us and protect us, to guide us and to reveal Himself to us in worship and in every person we meet.

As Orthodox Christians and the inheritors of Christ's holy Church, our greatest responsibility is to be seeking God constantly. We seek Him most frequently in our daily personal prayers, hoping not only that God will hear us and answer us but also that we, the ones who pray, will be transformed, sanctified and cleansed by the words and the simply action of connecting with our Lord. St. Paul, in his epistle to the Ephesians, wrote, “Christ also loved the Church and gave Himself up for her, that He might sanctify and cleanse her with the washing of water by the word” (5:26).

So, as we are about to celebrate on January 6 the most holy Feast of Theophany, the Triune God's making Himself known to us, we see that it is not only our formal Baptism or even our commemoration of Christ's Baptism that cleanses us but our own daily efforts also to turn to Him and His Word for life and inspiration. Like our daily actions of eating, drinking and showering, the Fathers of the Church encourage us to be striving to be more dependent on God in our spiritual lives also. As the Bread of Life and the Living Water, only Christ can satisfy our hunger, our thirst, and our need to be cleansed. It is this dependence that we develop on God and His Church that ultimately frees us, empowers us, and motivates us to greater and greater expressions of charity and holiness. If we or our parishes are lacking in any of these, it is because we have not realized our God-given potential yet, as co-workers in the ministry of Christ.

Several years ago, I met a man who told me about his prayer life. He explained to me that, as a child, he had learned the basics about God but that his spiritual life was nearly non-existent. As an adult and a new parent, he looked at his own spirituality and admitted to himself that it had virtually no effect on his actions or words. He decided to dig deeper. After speaking to his priest, he began following the spiritual disciplines of study, weekly fasting, daily prayer, service to others, and Holy Confession. Ashe put it, “I knew that nothing would change in me if I just kept doing the same thing, so I decided to really let God into my life and see what would happen.” Today, that man is a true leader, a selfless servant, and great benefactor in his community, the right hand of his priest, and one of the many who have stepped forward and stepped out of their comfort zone to find a meaningful and transformative faith that awaits all who seek it.

May the New Year bring us all into a deeper and more meaningful relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. May His goodness, His love and His philanthropy be our inspiration as we seek to sanctify the time that God has given us.

- Fr. Christopher Stamas

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

On Sunday, 4 December, our church came together as a family for its Fall General Assembly. The meeting was both productive and informative. The 2012 Budget was approved and the various business of the church was discussed.

The subject of whether or not to continue the Festival was discussed as it does entail a lot of work, but the consensus was to continue the festival for 2012 as it will be the 30th anniversary of our festival. There will be a meeting held in January to discuss various options, including revising the dates, and other things as well. You all will be notified of this in time to attend the meeting and offer your inputs.

The most important message from the General Assembly meeting was the upcoming revitalization of our Stewardship program. The church appreciates and needs everyone's support of their time and talent, but the church also needs financial gifts to "keep the lights on". Some great ideas were brought forward at the General Assembly and I really look forward to seeing these implemented this year. The list of Stewards for 2011 will be printed in next month's bulletin.

I know that we all enjoyed the beautiful Christmas pageant put on by the youth of our parish. I hope that we all had a happy and blessed Christmas and I hope that for our Parish, the upcoming year is one of growth, peace, action and, where necessary, reconciliation.

The next Parish Council Meeting is tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, January 3rd at 7:00 pm. Should any parishioner have any item of concern or any matter they wish to have placed on the next meeting's Agenda, please contact any Parish Council member, or the undersigned.

Respectfully,
Zoe Adamedes
Parish Council President

REFLECTIONS ON THEOPHANY

(The following is taken from The Year of Grace of the Lord, by “a Monk of the Eastern Church”, SVS Press, 1992.)

Epiphany (same as “Theophany”) is the first public manifestation of Christ. At the time of His birth, our Lord was revealed to a few privileged people. Today, all those who surround John, that is to say his own disciples and the crowd that has come to the banks of the Jordan, witness a more solemn manifestation of Jesus Christ. What does the manifestation consist of? It is made up of two aspects. On the one hand, there is the aspect of humility represented by the baptism to which our Lord submits; on the other hand, there is the aspect of glory represented by the human witness that the Precursor (St. John the Forerunner) bears to Jesus, and, on an infinitely higher plane, the divine witness which the Father and the Spirit bear to the Son...Let us bear this in mind: every manifestation of Jesus Christ, both in history and in the inner life of each man, is simultaneously a manifestation of humility and of glory. Whoever tries to separate these two aspects of Christ commits an error which falsifies the whole of spiritual life...

The aspect of humility in Epiphany consists of the fact that Our Lord submits to John’s baptism of repentance...Obviously Jesus had no need to be purified by John, but this baptism conferred by the Precursor, this baptism for the remission of sins, was a preparation for the messianic kingdom; and Jesus, before proclaiming the coming of this kingdom, wished to go through all those preparatory phases which He himself was to ‘consummate’. Being Himself the fullness, He wished to take into Himself all that was still incomplete and unfinished...He who was without sin made Himself the bearer of all our sins, of the sin of the whole world; and it is in the name of all sinners that Jesus made a public act of repentance...As far as we ourselves are concerned, repentance is the aspect of humility in Epiphany. And here we must go beyond the limited horizon of the Johanne baptism and remind ourselves that we have been baptized in Christ. Christian baptism has washed and purified us...Epiphany is, above all, the feast of baptism, not only of Jesus’ baptism, but also of our own. It is a wonderful opportunity for us to renew in spirit the baptism that we received, and to revive the grace which was conferred on us. For the sacramental graces, even if interrupted and suspended by sin, can become alive in us again, if we turn sincerely to God. At this feast of Epiphany, let us ask God to wash us again – spiritually, not actually – in the waters of baptism; let us drown the old, the sinful creature in them, for baptism is a mystical death; let us cross the Red Sea which separates captivity from freedom and let us immerse ourselves with Jesus in the Jordan to be washed not by the Precursor, but by Jesus Himself...

This feast brings us, not only the grace of purification, but also the grace of illumination (in fact, baptism itself was formerly called “illumination”). The light of Christ at Christmas was but a star in the dark night; at Epiphany it appears to us as the rising sun; it will grow and, after the eclipse of Holy Friday, burst forth yet more splendid, on the morning of Easter; and finally, at Pentecost, it will reach its full zenith...

The students of St Spyridon Church perform the Annual Christmas Pageant. Children re-enacted the Nativity and also sang the Kalanta and other Greek songs. Thank you to all who helped and participated—what a beautiful way to celebrate this Blessed Season!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Dear Families,

Thank you to all the families for another wonderful pageant! Thank you to the children for doing such a great job. Also, Philoptochos and Sunday School thank all the families in the parish who donated an item to our Adopt-a-Family. Presents were delivered on Tuesday, December 20th. Next year we will continue the tradition of helping another family in need in our local area.

God bless!
Marianne

The students of the Greek School chanted the Apolytikion of Saint Spyridon (Απολυτίκιον Αγίου Σπυρίδωνα) during Vespers on December 11th and the Apolytikion of the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord (Απολυτίκιον Χριστουγέννων - Η Γέννησις Σου Χριστέ) in church on Christmas Day.

GREEK SCHOOL NEWS

As we begin the 2012 calendar year and approach the middle of the school year, we will have a Parents Meeting after liturgy on Sunday, January 8th downstairs in the Greek School classroom to discuss the school year to date and plans for the second half of the year. Please make every effort to attend this meeting and offer your input.

During the week of January 9th (at the end of each respective class) there will be individual parent/teacher conferences in order that you may receive feedback on the progress of your students directly from their teacher. If you desire to have such a meeting, please speak directly with your children's teacher(s).

NEWPORT HELLENIC DANCERS

Happy and Healthy New Year to all.

We would like to take the opportunity to thank all of you that supported us during our annual Pastry Sale. We had another successful fundraiser with the support of the community. We thank you for your orders, donations, and help with baking and packaging. A special thanks to the younger members of our group that participated and made this a fun event.

Practices for the New Year will start in January (January 15th and 22nd). We will be providing more details via email. This is the tenth year for our group. We are very excited and are planning various celebrations throughout the year. If you are thinking of joining us, this is the time to start. We will be learning dances to prepare for the Greek Independence day celebrations, as well our summer Hellenic Fest, and are opening up the group up to new members. If you would like to participate at the festival this is the time to start. We welcome all, young and old. No previous experience is necessary.

Please feel free to call us or email us with any questions or comments.

IN OUR PARISH

Baptism

On November 6, 2011, the daughter of Aaron and Diana Gordon was baptized and given the name Emily Andronika by her Godparents Nick and Stacey Tanionos. May she live a long and happy life.

On Sunday December 18th after the Christmas Pageant, seven children and their families visited two area nursing homes to sing the kalanta and brought pastries donated by the Hellenic Dancers. Thank you to Loula Eliopoulos for coordinating this wonderful outing!

AHEPA FUNDRAISER LAUNCHES SUCCESSFULLY

The AHEPA is grateful and happy to announce a successful launch for its new major fundraising campaign. In anticipation of the 100th anniversary of the St. Spyridon Church in Newport in 2015, the AHEPA in a joyous, celebratory spirit, intends to raise the funds for a carillon/bell system for the church. These systems play a virtually unlimited range of music including many Greek hymns and songs. The amount needed is $8000, and the first two fundraising events raised $565. Thanks to all who have been supporting this worthy cause. Special thanks to Mary and Steve Kyriakakis for their leadership in this campaign.

To learn more about state of the art carillon systems, one can, for example, investigate chimemaster.com. Many Greek Orthodox churches in New England (e.g. Norwich, Nashua, Bridgeport) have this system as do many churches in Newport (e.g. St. Joseph, Church of Jesus Savior, Channing Memorial) and United Congregational in Middletown.

DAUGHTERS OF PENELOPE NEWS

A very successful and enjoyable Christmas Dinner with the Ahepans and Philoptochos was held in December thanks to the efforts of Marie Stefanopoulos Johnson, Leah Violet, and Valerie St. Peter.

Shut-ins and nursing homes were visited also in December. Our next meeting will be held Wednesday, January 11, 2012 at the Ahepa Housing Complex at 7 pm. Please make every effort to attend as we will be making plans for initiating new members.

A BLESSED AND HAPPY
NEW YEAR TO ALL!
