FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Let us Give Thanks Unto the Lord

Lord, I lift up my soul above the din and clamor of vanity on this Thanksgiving day; open my eyes, clarify my mind and motivate my spirit that I may recall my many blessings over the journey that I have traveled. Then, Surely, with a smile on my face, gratitude in my heart, sincerity in my thoughts and restful peace in my soul, I will thank Thee: FOR daily sustenance; the ability to walk into my home as a provider and to merit that rewarding look of a nourished child's face. FOR shelter that transforms the fearful thud of falling rain into a lullaby. FOR raiment that changes the frosty bite of winter into the caressing touch of comfort. FOR health that transforms painful agonies into hopeful pursuits. FOR faith and guidance which, like a candle, has led me out of the dark labyrinths of my transgressions into illuminated highways of Christian purposes. FOR peace of mind by day and restful sleep by night through the deliverance from my many sins. FOR banishing fear from my heart and preventing from happening the things that I came to dread. FOR lifting me with Thy Hand from the edge of the abyss of despair, and shining in my way the light of hope. FOR the church of my fathers; those who founded her, maintained her, enlarged her, beautified her, and enriched her, with their labors. FOR the country of my ancestry and the heritage she has bequeathed to me, which has worth and dignity. FOR this, my country, that fearlessly champions every God given right and every moral and humane cause; where the will of the people reigns supreme; where, even if the President dies, the Presidency never does. Where tragedy is succeeded by greatness, despair by decision, complacency by rededication. Where every man can make his contribution in freedom. FOR friends near and far who individually and collectively, personally, and nationally help me smile in my adversity, temper my disaster with their sympathy, warm my heart with their embrace. Grant that memories of sorrows consoled, catastrophes averted, joys experienced, and tears shed become no mere incidents on an aimless course, but permanent landmarks of Thy Exceeding Grace, on our way, in Jesus Christ our Lord. FOR all these, Lord, I thank thee!

ON STEWARDSHIP

“A tithe of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, belongs to the Lord; it is Holy to the LORD” (Lev. 27:30 NIV).

For the most part of my life, tithing was a foreign concept. I never even considered it. Oh, I knew that there were churches that taught and practiced tithing, but they were different and strange. The fact that it was presented so clearly made no difference to me at all. Since it was in the Old Testament, it had no relevance in my life, or so it seemed.

As I have gotten closer to God, I have been aware of the Holy Spirit teaching me and convincing me of the importance of tithing. At first I was uncomfortable with the radical nature of this teaching, but slowly I began to examine it.

The first realization I came to was that my giving was haphazard and undisciplined, and so were my finances. Usually giving was hardly an afterthought for me. If I had anything left over after bills and wants and if I felt like it, I would give. But it was not a priority in my life. The idea that my money was really God’s money just did not occur to me. Learning to tithe and then vowing to tithe has been a life-changing experience for me. I have now learned that God does provide, that He provides more than I need, that He uses me as a vessel to get more of His own money to further His Kingdom, and that His storehouse of blessings is limitless. I am so thankful for this great lesson and for the confirmation of faith that God has provided.

I do not know what our weekly contribution to God’s kingdom would be if all Christians tithed, but my speculation is that it would be more than double what it is now. My encouragement to you is that you seek God’s will for you and ask God about tithing. Ask Him for help and direction in this matter. He will guide you and give you His will, and you will be enabled to do His will.

- Charles Kirklin

My Dear Parishioners,

This letter of testimony by Charles Kirklin on the benefits of Tithing is reprinted from “Pulpit Helps”. By reprinting this letter I am not asking or suggesting that you tithe, however I am hoping it will have some impact amongst us Orthodox Christians of St. Spyridon parish to seriously contemplate the issue of our Christian Giving—our Stewardship—to our Church as we come to the end of 2012 and soon into the new Stewardship year 2013, remembering this man’s testimony and his commitment to giving based on the concept that everything we have comes from God and therefore we need to return that which belongs to God as the dismissal prayer at the end of the Divine Liturgy says, “... For every good and perfect gift is from above, coming from You, the Father of lights.” that we do this through our sincere and honest giving proportionately to our financial strength and our love for the Lord and His Church and our parish of St. Spyridon.

- Fr. George

EVENTS OF NOVEMBER

Holy Unmercenaries Cosmas & Damian—November 1

There have been three pairs of unmercenaries who have become saints in Orthodoxy. All three have been physicians, and they have healed without charge and for the glory of god, and for this reason have been called unmercenaries.

Coincidentally, they have all been named Cosmas & Damianos. The two who are commemorated today were the first of those three pairs. The second pair is celebrated on July 1, and the third pair on October 17. These two celebrated today were brothers from Asia Minor and were raised as Christians by their mother. The money for their own needs was from their parents' estate. Cosmas once became extremely upset when his brother received three eggs from a patient, even though she has sworn an oath that he would have them. The brother believed that "of the most high comes most healing." God gave them the gift of working miracles by their prayers as well. They both died peacefully. Even then, calling on the saints for intercession has worked miracles. A python had wrapped itself around a worker while he slept, covering his mouth and his stomach. When in desperation he called upon the saints, he was spared.

The Entry of the Theotokos into the Temple—November 21

Since Joachim and Anna, parents of the Theotokos, had been childless for a long time, Anna prayed that she would dedicate her future child to the Temple of God. When the Theotokos was three years old, she was taken in a procession to the temple. Her parents, relatives, and maidens, all bearing candles, lead the way to the first step of the temple, she ran up the remaining fourteen steps. John the Baptist's father, Zacharias, took her by the hand into the temple, and by divine inspiration also past the second curtain in the Holy of Holies, where only the high priest enters but once a year. Joachim and Anna visited her often until their death. The Theotokos wished to remain a virgin in the temple her entire life. However, the Jewish law would not permit this, nor had this ever been heard of. For this reason, Zacharias chose an elderly relative to whom she was betrothed but not married, to protect her virginity. Her parents were buried at the base of the Garden of Gethsemane about fifty steps down a cement staircase, and the empty tomb of the Theotokos is again fifty steps below this.

Andrew the First-Called Apostle—November 30

Andrew was at first a disciple of Saint John the Baptist along with Saint John the Theologian. When the Forerunner pointed out Jesus, they both became His disciples.

After Pentecost, Andrew taught in Byzantium, Thrace, Russia, Epiros, and Peloponnesos. In Amisos, he converted the Jews in the temple, baptized them, healed their sick, built a church and left a priest for them. In Sinope, he prayed for the imprisoned Apostle Matthias, and his chains fell from him and the cell door opened. The people beat Andrew, breaking his teeth, cutting his fingers, and left him for dead in a dung heap. Jesus appeared to him and healed him, telling him to be of good cheer. When the people saw him the next day, they were amazed and believed. In Patras, Andrew healed the wife of the proconsul Aegeates of an incurable disease. The Proconsul Aegeates' family believed in the miracles and preaching of St. Andrew, and the enraged Proconsul tortured and crucified St. Andrew. St. Andrew did not find himself worthy enough to die in the same manner as Christ, and requested that he be crucified upon an "X-shaped" cross. The new converts wanted to remove him from his cross, but the saint would not allow them. Instead, he comforted them from the cross and as he prayed an extraordinary light encompassed him for about a half hour. When it left, he gave up his soul. It was the year 62 AD.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

The Parish Council met for its regular meeting on October 2nd.

During this meeting, preparations for the Fall General Assembly meeting schedule for 11 November were made. A careful review of the current income and expenses for 2012 (year to date) was conducted, and a proposed budget for 2013 was prepared. This information is being mailed out for review prior to the General Assembly. PLEASE MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO ATTEND THIS GENERAL ASSEMBLY. The work of the church can only take place with everyone's involvement!

New side doors as well as an overhang over the side door are being looked into. (This is the side door with its entrance by the now defunct elevator). The parts have been ordered for the chair lift and hopefully, the installation will be complete by Thanksgiving. Thanks also to Mr. Costa Gianetis for helping with the electrical work!

We are still awaiting the plasterer to come and start the plaster repairs inside the church. We've been waiting a while and we really need to have him schedule us in and just do the job already! Other repairs that the Council is looking into include a) redoing the church hall wood floors, cleaning the kitchen stove (etc), and repaving and restriping the parking lot. This is along with doing something about the front doors so that they close properly.

Speaking about repairs, the Council will be asking for volunteers for Capital Repair Team. (With the small size of the Council, and the various tasks and work that must be done, it is unfortunate that the larger improvements to the Church cannot be addressed by the Parish Council alone). Their mission (should they choose to accept) would be to identify and prioritize major repairs and/or renovations to the Church Property. This parish has many talented members who could really make this Team a real success. We hope that everyone will think about what they perhaps can offer to this team.

With regards to Stewardship income, our financial giving is still WAY UNDER what we had budgeted for 2012. To date, the Church has received a little over $45,000 in stewardship pledges, versus the $90,000 which was budgeted. Again, if you haven't yet pledged or fulfilled your pledge, please do so NOW! Also, consider a larger gift if possible. Every bit helps!

The next Parish Council Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov 6th at 7:00 pm. If you have any questions or comments about anything, please contact me or any parish council member.

Respectfully,

Zoe Adamedes
Parish Council President
274-1316/zadamedes@yahoo.com

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Dear Families,

The Sunday School will be partnering with Child and Family Services to make up Thanksgiving baskets for families in need. The due date for all items to be brought in will be Sunday, November 18th. I will send out more details about this in the weeks to come. If anyone in the community would like to contribute, please see or email me.

THE FATHERS SPEAK ON PHILANTHROPY

St. Justin in his First Apology for the Christian faith gives us a second century description of the Sunday Eucharis as a communal action that manifest three equally important and inseparable elements: the proclamation of the Word of God, the celebration of the Eucharist, and the sacrament of the poor brethren.

“And on the day named after the sun, all, whether they live in the city or the countryside, are gathered together in unity. Then the records of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read for as long as there is time. When the reader has concluded, the preside in a discourse admonishes and invites us into the pattern of these good things. Then we all stand together and offer prayer. And, as we said before, when we have concluded our prayer, bread is set out to eat, together with wine and water. The preside likewise, offers up prayer and thanksgiving, as much as he can, and the people sing out their assent saying the amen. There is a distribution of the things over which thanks have been said and each person participates, and these things are sent by the deacons to those who are not present. Those who are prosperous and who desire to do so give what they wish, according to each one’s choice, and the collection is deposited with the preside. He aids orphans and widows, those who are in want through disease or through another cause, those who are in prison, and foreigners who are sojourning here. In short the preside is a guardian of all those who are in need.”

THANKSGIVING LUNCHLESS LUNCH

As Orthodox Christians, we pray "for favorable weather, an abundance of the fruits of the earth, and temperate seasons." But for many people around the world — especially those affected by natural disasters, drought and famine — a simple meal is an answer to their prayers. Live your faith this Thanksgiving by supporting IOCC's Lunchless Lunch appeal. Share the harvest and show you care.

Give a Gift of Love This Christmas

As your family prepares for the Feast of the Nativity, please remember your brothers and sisters in need. The feast of Christmas is for all people as it ushers in new hope and new life. The good news first announced by the Angel to the shepherds can continue echoing this Christmas as we exchange these gifts of love with the "least of our brethren."

Your support of IOCC brings life-sustaining programs to children and families suffering from war, poverty, disease, man-made and natural disasters. May you and yours enjoy the true nature of the Christmas feast this year. Please share it with others by supporting the work of IOCC.

IN OUR PARISH

Baptisms

On September 1st, the children of William and Rebecca Hubbard were baptized. They were given the names Sophia, St. Patrick and Basile by their Godparents Meghan Marinos, Matthew and Christopher Hubbard. Rebecca was also chrismated into the Greek Orthodox Religion.

On September 29th, Derrick Brantley was baptized in our church and given the name Theodore by his Godmother Despina Amarant.

On September 30th, the son of Dr. Cosmo and Despina Haralambidis was baptized and given the name of Constantine by his Godmother Maria Leroux.

On October 14th, the daughter of Constantine and Kristin Amarant was baptized and given the name Christiana by her Godparent Dimitri Moisiades.

Congratulations to all of the families and extended families and may all those who have been welcomed into our faith live long and happy lives!

NEWPORT HELLENIC DANCERS

The Newport Hellenic Dancers will be kicking off their annual holiday pastry sale fundraiser for 2012 in November. This is the ninth Annual Fundraiser for the Troupe. As in previous years, homemade pastries will be made available in decorated boxes for sale. The funds we raise are mainly spent to buy new costumes for our expanding group, as well as pay for other things that we need to support the dancers. The costumes are used by all the children of our community for major celebrations such as Greek Independence Day on the 25th of March, as well as by the Hellenic Dancers for their performances throughout the year, especially at our Annual Festival. We also make these costumes available to students for cultural projects and presentations, when representing the Hellenic heritage in their schools. All costumes are the property of the St. Spyridon Church.

These make wonderful holiday gifts. We do take the time to package these pastries, so they are suitable for gift giving. Feel free to call Sandy or Vaggeli (401) 667-2984, email (e.giannopoulos@verizon.net), or sign up at the church. Please see flyer included in this bulletin!

AHEPA'S HELLENIC HISTORY QUIZ SHOW

“Interesting!” “Fun!” “Our table was buzzing with people trying to answer the questions on their own!” Those are typical of the reviews for the well attended event held in the fellowship hall after Divine Liturgy 23 September.

Thirty questions written by Alexander and Peter Antonopoulos concerning ancient and modern Greece were projected onto the wall. Alexander moderated the proceedings, and several of our youth went back and forth trying to get the correct multiple choice answer.

Theodore Panoutsopoulos bested the competition of his younger brother Panagiotis and young Christos Soares. They all earned nice participation gifts provided by the Atlantic Beach Club.

The AHEPA hosted the Coffee Hour, and a successful fundraiser was also held at the event thanks to the leadership of Steve Jennings. Once again, the AHEPA is grateful to all for their support.

DAUGHTERS OF PENELOPE NEWS

The November meeting will be held Wednesday, November 14th, 7 pm at the Ahepa Housing. At our October meeting we welcomed Linda Bartis and Eleni Nacos, who is a transfer from Washington, DC, to our chapter. Plans are being formed for our Christmas Dinner with the Ahepa and the Philoptochos and will be discussed at this meeting. Please make an effort to attend our meeting and participate.
